NAMASKARAM, WELCOME TO KUMBH SUKRIT

Dear Esteemed Guest,

I am delighted to welcome you to the Kumbh Sukrit Camp!

The Kumbh Sukrit Camp is a well laid-out precinct where you will enjoy the serene environment and get an opportunity to mingle with individuals from different regions. Within the camp you will be able to participate in a range of activities and experience the traditional and ancient Indian art of Yoga, Meditation, Vedic Yagna and various Ayurvedic treatments to refresh and rejuvenate. All these activities are besides the Kumbh Mela festivities.

We are committed to serve you and ensure that you relax and enjoy the Kumbh Mela. I encourage you to read through this guide to learn about our camp, its facilities, services on offer and daily activities organised within the camp. Our teams are always available to assist you for any specific requirements.

Wish you a relaxing stay with us!

Warm Regards

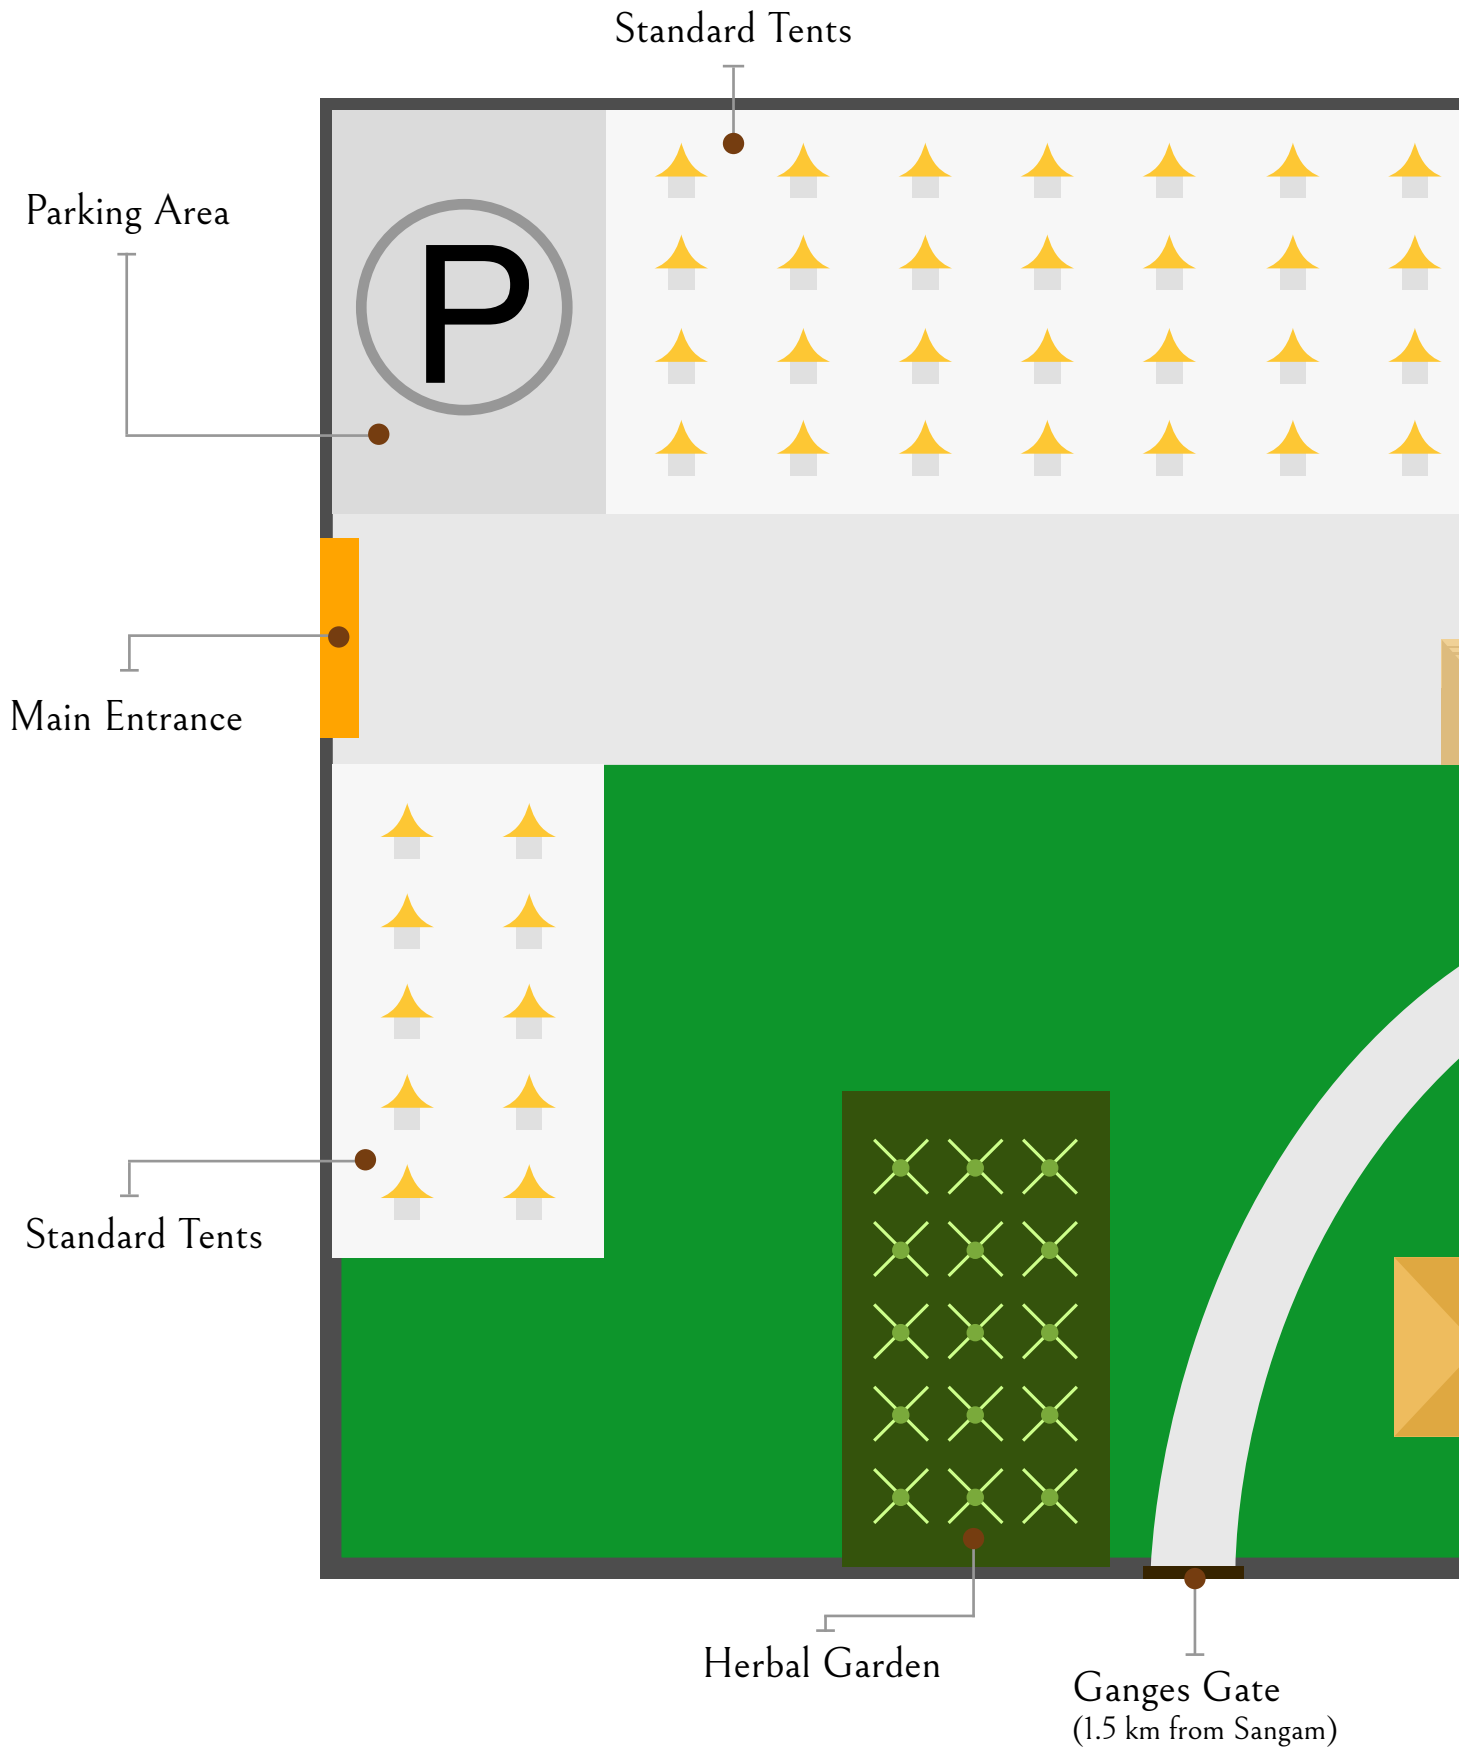

Naam Deo

KUMBH MELA INFORMATION

Information regarding outside Kumbh Festivities.

TRAVELLING OUTSIDE TO KUMBH FESTIVITIES

The Kumbh Mela is the largest cultural event and includes a wide range of cultural, religious and traditional activities. The overall responsibility of planning and managing this event rests with the Government authorities at the State, regional and the Central levels. The Government agencies have organised several options and assistance booths within the Kumbh Mela precinct to assist anyone requiring any help.

It is a critical requirement for all guests to be aware of the location of the activities they wish to go to and how to get back to the Camp site due to the excessive number of visitors. It is your responsibility to ensure that you have understood the precautionary measures recommended to all visitors to ensure your safety amongst the crowd.
